

NEWSLETTER Friday 21/6/2019

Diamond Tour opening class for Simon Widmann

Thursday Diamond Tour class with obstacles up to 150 cm was first tough exam of the event program.

Competition counted within the Longines Ranking serves also as qualification for the FEI World Cup Grand Prix Olomouc. German couple Simon Widmann and bay stallion Domburg VD Rechri gained first place with zero penalties and time 70,58 sec. Czech junior Sára Vingrálková on Kas-Sini DC took second place, as she completed clear round two seconds slower than winner. Dutch representative Sander Geerink on French mare Unfiniti Bois Margot was third. Italian Emanuele Camilli on Jakko and Czech rider Marek Klus with stallion Carison can be found in TOP5 with zero penalty points as well. Totaly twelve of fourty couples achieved clear result.

Czech Filip Doležal on Reason du Ganad obtained only tree time penalties.

Italian riders on top of first Gold Tour competition

Thursday program brought first part of Gold Tour built with obstacles up to 140 cm.

Italian rider Roberto Turchetto with Dutch mare Adare came for victory. He completed the course with zero penalties and best time 62,72 sec. His team mate Francesca Arioldi and bay gelding Loro Piana Celtics finihed on second position. Dutch representative Remco Been occupied with Belgian mare Holland VD Bisschop third place. The Best Czech rider was Jan Štětina in a saddle of stallion Benito-S on fourth rank. Totaly twenty one couples overcame the course without penalty points. Czechs Marek Hentšel and dark bay stallion Trend D Eslendam Z, Ondřej Zvára with stallion Quimerem-M, Nikola Bielíková on Carthinjo and Roman Duchač with grey mare Leokadia were among them.

Czechs shined during Thursday competitions

• Sára Vingrálková and Damocles From Second Life Z are successfull in Youngster Tour. They came third at Wednesday class and won one day later. Marek Klus with Solidat finished on second place. Lucie Strnadlová with Carpala-Peli gained third position.

• Czech junior rider Valentýna Kuková with Chicago-Ra won the Thursday opening class, Bronze Tour up to 125 cm. She took also second place in a saddle of Cartman 4. Third place belongs to polish couple Michal Kazmierczak and Bengraf.

• Czech rider Sára Vingrálková in saddle of Oscar des Fontaines won junior class up to 130 cm. She completed clear and the fastest round. Sofie Najmanová and Lexus 79 finished on second place with zero penalties as well. Flawless Valentýna Kuková and Spotlight came third.

• Second round of Youngster Tour for six and seven years horses was sucessfull for Czech stud. Czech warmblood mare Carpala-Peli came on third place, stallion Heartvit ZH finished fourth and L-Querida was placed also on TOP10, on seventh position.

• Total 188 couples competed on Thursday at J&T BANKA CSI3*W Olomouc. The most attractive class was Gold Tour up to 140 cm with 57 registered participants. Youngster Tour were completed by 40 couples, same as Diamond Tour.

PROGRAM Friday 21/6/2019

09:00 • CSI3* Elite Tour	110 cm
10:15 • CSI3* Silver Tour	135 cm
13:00 • CSI U25 EY Cup	140 cm
14:30 • CSIJ-A Junior Tour	135 cm
16:00 • CSI3* Gold Tour	145 cm

NEWS

www.csiolomouc.cz

WATCH LIVE

BROADCAST ON-LINE!