

NEWSLETTER Saturday 22/6/2019

The highest Friday class for Italian rider Fabio Brotto

The highest class of day, Gold Tour in two phases up to 145 cm, has closed Friday program.

Italian rider Fabio Brotto in saddle of eleven years old mare Vaniglia Delle Roane overcame a course with zero penalties and the best time 27,96 sec.

Second place belongs to Polish athlete Maksymilian Wechta on ten years old holstein stallion Number One 28, who recorded clear round and only four tenth more than winner.

Czech rider Vladimír Tretera and Dutch bay stallion Gangster VH Noddevelt took third place. One more Czech rider was placed within TOP10 of result list. Vladislava Fenclová and ten year old mare Picobella finished on seventh position. She completed both phases of competition with zero penalty points as well.

Polish Zuzanna Januszewska invincible at the EY Cup Tour

Polish rider Zuzanna Januszewska won both classes of the European Youngster Cup.

She and her mare Ironia overcame Friday course up to 140 cm with zero penalty points and best time 64,49 sec. Another Polish couple Dalia Lehmann and bay mare Annchen 11 came on second place, third position has been taken by Adam Grzegorzewski in saddle of mare Lissara T. Also Austrian rider Denise Ruth with gelding Little Joe R was flawless, and occupied fourth rank.

The best home representative was Valentýna Poláchová with black gelding Stuntman 10 on fifth position. She finished the class with four penalty points. Athlete, who will win the CSIU25 Grand Prix on Saturday, will be qualified directly at European Youngster Cup 2019 final, that will be held in Salzburg in December 2019.

Czech juniors dominated the Friday competition

Czech juniors took top positions of the Junior Tour up to 135 cm. Valentýna Kuková won in saddle of mare Philadelphia. Second place is occupied by Sára Vingrálová on Oscar des Fontaines and Mariana Michlíčková with Idee VD Achterhoek came third.

Italian rider Roberto Turchetto recorded second triumph at CSI3* Olomouc. He and his gelding Grappenmaker won Friday Silver Tour up to 135 cm. Czech Ladislav Vachutka on Vanilla Rose came second. Jakub Štěrba with Go-On T.S. took third position.

Total 153 couples participated during Friday at J&T BANKA CSI3*W Olomouc. The most attractive class was Silver Tour up to 135 cm with 57 registered competing couples. Gold Tour with obstacles up to 145 cm were completed by 48 couples.

Czech couple Gabriela Kopřivová and Pepsi SG won also second Elite Tour class with obstacles up to 110 cm. Another Czech rider Adéla Pokorná with Alabama took second place. Third place is occupied by Slovak Nina Smilnáková and Lanou VD Meunishof Z.

Saturday program will offer first Grand Prix of the show. It will be Grand Prix of the Czech Equestrian Team determined to riders up to 25 years. Winner will be qualified in the European Youngster Cup Final, that will be held in Salzburg in December.

PROGRAM Saturday 22/6/2019

09:00	• CSI3* Elite Tour	110/115 cm
10:15	• CSI3* Silver Tour	135/140 cm
13:00	• CSI EY Cup GP C-E-T	145 cm
14:45	• CSI3* Diamond Tour	150 cm
16:00	• CSIYH1* Youngster Tour	130/135 cm

NEWS www.csiolomouc.cz
WATCH LIVE BROADCAST ON-LINE!