GERMAN SPREHE WON THE WORLD CUP IN OLOMOUC FOR THE THIRD TIME. TRETERA THIRD

Jörne Sprehe with Stakki's Jumper won her third Grand Prix at the World Cup in Olomouc on Sunday. The German was one of the three riders in the jump-off. As the last contender she knew the results of her rivals and took the victory after a cool ride without mistakes and in the fastest time.

Second was Mateusz Tyszko with Zirocco Air from Poland and the third place went to Vladimír Tretera on Gangster v/h Noddevelt. The reigning Czech champion achieved a clear round in the basic round and also in the jump-off, that he completed in a time of 37,20 seconds.

Urbanska takes the final for six-year-olds, Štětina finished second

Seventeen horses produced a clear round to advance to the jump-off in the Saturday's CSIYH final for six-year-olds. Polish rider Malwina Urbanska on Cachmer secured the win in a time of 34.63 seconds. Local hope Jan Štětina with Kannarco on the second place was only 27 hundredths of a second slower than the winner. Urbanska addend the third place with her another horse Dargos.

Schober wins the CSIYH final for seven-year-olds in Olomouc for Germany

German Philipp Schober on Jack Daniels was the best rider of the final for seven-year-old horses in Olomouc on Saturday. He produced a clear performance in a time of 38.01 seconds. Although Wednesday's winner Shane Dwan from Ireland was more than four seconds faster, he made one mistake and took the fourth place. The Slovakian team achieved the second and third place thanks to Ján Cigán jr. and Táňa Hatalová.

Djelmic shines in the junior Grand Prix in Olomouc, Michlíčková third

Only four pairs showed a flawless performance in the Junior Grand Prix at the CSI Olomouc on Saturday. The best rider in the jump-off on the 140 cm high course was the Croatian Lee Djelmic on Flyer, who stred without a mistře and finished in the best time. Poland's Maria Branka-Borja with Ma Belle de Muze was second, followed by Czech hopes Mariana Michlíčková with Officier van de Achterhoek and Natálie Kovářová with Chacco-To.

Slovakian success in the main competition on Saturday

Slovakian river Bronislav Chudyba with Corbin won the main competition of Saturday's CS21*-W programme in Olomouc. The Olomouc City Prize on the 145 cm high course was also counted in the FEI World Longines Rankings. In the jump-off Chudyba decided the competition from the last starting competition, achieving the time 34.79 seconds and beating the German Marvin Jüngel by more than one second. The elite trio was completed by the Adam Grzegorzewski from Poland.

The Slovaks are doing well in Olomouc. Ján Cigán won again

Czech rider Lucie Strnadlová was almost on the verge of winning the CSI Medium Tour final in Olomouc. With the last starting position she just needed to a clear round within the time limit, but a mistake on the last obstacle determined Jan Cigán from Slovakia as the winner. Strnadlová ended up fourth. Irish course designer Alan Wade made a significant impact on the final day of the CSI2*-W in Olomouc. Over 60 pairs competed in the Medium Tour final on the 140 centimetre high course. However, only four completed the basic round without any mistake. With one mistake in the jump-off Ján Cigán jr. on Nice Lady secured another win for Slovakia. German rider Pheline Ahlmann with Abby was second and Austrian Roland Englbrecht on Calippo 8 third.

Successful mission of Svobodová in Olomouc. She added a win in the GP EY Cup

Czech rider Tereza Svobodová had a successful week in Olomouc. In addition to a very good result in Sunday's Grand Prix, she followed up Friday's victory in the saddle of Britannia and celebrated another win in the Sunday's EY Cup Grand Prix for riders under 25 years. Six riders advanced to the jump-off on the 145 cm high course. Svobodová with Britannia was the fastest of them, beating Egor Shchibrik from Russia and German Pheline Ahlmann.

Czech victory in the Small Tour: Skutecký was the last winner at the CSI Olomouc
